

FOLKLORE
Bodoland University

Course Outcome (B.A. General Course)

Folklore is a regular course in Fakiragram college under Guahati University but recently it is added to Bodoland University. This subject covers vast field of studies in folk traditional culture and its related subjects. Though it is very new subject to the students, it helps them to know about the importance of Folklore and its studies. Folklore has a vast scope, in fact is an advance study as it helps students in their higher studies.

Semester-1

FOK RC: Introduction to Folklore.

In this semester the students come to know about the basic knowledge of folklore, its origin, meaning and beginning of folklore as a discipline etc.

Semester-2

FOK RC: Folk literature of Assam: Narrative Genre.

This semester syllabus focusses mainly on Folk literature of Assam. Here it helps the students to know about the Tribal language materials in details.

Semester-3

FOK RC: Material Culture.

This paper will acquaint the students about the core concept of materials culture and familiarize them with items of material culture prevalent in Assam.

Semester-4

FOK RC: Social Folk Customs and Performing Folk Art.

In this Semester the paper will help the students to go through the social folk customs and performing art of different cultures in details which will help them in their further studies.

Semester-5

FOK RC: Folklore and Field Work.

This paper will help the students to find out the relation between Folklore and Fieldwork. It will also give the importance of fieldwork studies for data collection which is also very much helpful in higher studies.

Semester-6

FOC RC: Project work.

This paper covers project work which is also the most important integral part of syllabus. Here it focuses mainly on field work, survey and methods of data collection on different Tribes, culture tradition, religion art and on many other fields. This helps the students to know more about Folklore and which also very much helpful in their higher studies