Assessment policy
On
Certificate and Add-on Courses

Fakiragram College has a policy in introducing Add-on courses in all the departments with a view to inculcate added knowledge, skills, ideas to the enrolled students to cope up with the present challenges of employment opportunity and other entrepreneurial requirements. The institution has adopted the assessment policy on Add-on courses in such a way that they can enroll their name in the Add-on courses simultaneously with the regular courses. There will be total 30 hours classes for the course and duration is maximum 6 months. The students have to appear in the examination to be conducted by the course Co-ordinator of the concerned course and there will be 25 numbers of MCQ and each question carries 2 marks. Obtaining 50% marks is mandatory for successful completion of the course. After evaluation process is complete, the course Co-ordinator shall declare the results and distribute the certificates.
