ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Fakiragram College was established on 1st July 1994, marking a significant milestone in the educational development of the Fakiragram region. The institution began its academic journey in a modest setting, operating from the premises of Fakiragram Higher Secondary School with a limited number of students. Its foundation was inspired by a shared vision among committed community members who recognized the urgent need for a degree college to provide accessible higher education in this socially and economically underdeveloped area.

The college owes its inception to the tireless efforts of several visionary individuals whose dedication laid the groundwork for what would become a beacon of learning in the region. Among the pioneers were Late Mahendra Ballav Deb Choudhury, former Principal of Fakiragram Higher Secondary School, Shri Surendra Kalita, freedom fighter Late Jamini Kr. Baruah, literary pensioner, Shri Prasanta Kr. Saha Roy, founding Principal of Fakiragram College, Sri Santola Basumatary, Principal of Fakiragram Higher Secondary School. Their mission was strengthened by the support of esteemed social activists, including Shri Ranoj Brahma, Sri Abdul Badsha, and Shri Surendra Sharma, who played key roles in mobilizing resources and community support. In addition to these community leaders, Mr. Parameshwar Brahma, the then MLA of 29 No. Kokrajhar Constituency, provided invaluable support during the institution's formative years. His active involvement significantly contributed to the grooming and early development of the college, helping to transform it into the respected center of education it is today.

In its initial phase, the college faced significant financial challenges. However, these obstacles were gradually overcome through generous public contributions and the unwavering commitment of the local community. A major turning point in the institution's history came with the donation of 11.57 acres of land by Sri Jut Babulal Agarwala and Mrs. Sabita Agarwala respected landholders from Fakiragram. This act of generosity enabled the relocation of the college to its current campus on the scenic banks of the river Hel, providing an expansive and tranquil environment conducive to academic growth.

Fakiragram College was recognized under Section 2(f) on 16th March 2007 and Section 12(B) on 20th November 2009 of the UGC Act, 1956, making it eligible for central assistance. The college was provincialised on 1st January 2013 under the Assam Venture Educational Institutions (Provincialisation of Services) Act, 2011, as amended in 2012, securing its status as a government-supported institution. Marking a significant milestone in its ongoing journey toward academic distinction, Fakiragram College proudly received a B+ grade accreditation from the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) in its first cycle in 2023. This prestigious recognition not only affirms the institution's steadfast commitment to quality education but also highlights its ongoing dedication to academic rigor, research advancement, and comprehensive student support.

From humble beginnings, the college has grown into a recognized center of higher education, serving Fakiragram and neighboring regions. It remains dedicated to nurturing well-rounded individuals through a focus on academics, ethics, and all-round development.

With modern facilities, a highly qualified faculty, and a student-centric approach, Fakiragram College continues to foster an environment where learning thrives and futures are shaped—upholding its mission to enlighten minds and empower communities.
